Clarus Glen Ridge Luxury Rental Community Now 100 Percent Leased

March 24, 2022

JMF Properties' Upscale Clarus Brand Surges in Popularity; More Openings Planned in 2022 & 2023

GLEN RIDGE, NJ – Clarus Glen Ridge, the upscale rental community on the border of Montclair, is now 100 percent leased, developer JMF Properties announced today.

The collection of 110 modern rental residences with a full complement of lifestyle amenities leased up in less than six months, according to Joe Forgione, the Founder and Principal of JMF Properties. The community's emphasis on luxury, comfort, convenience and resident health and well-being – all signature elements of the "Clarus" brand – was a combination that spoke to the preferences of today's renter and accelerated the velocity of the leasing program.

“We’re proud that Clarus Glen Ridge is now 100 percent leased and thrilled that New Jersey renters have embraced the community so enthusiastically,” Mr. Forgione said. “Clarus Glen Ridge was designed to offer the best of everything to residents who so graciously choose to make this community their home, from curated amenities to plush interior spaces to exquisite, high-end finishes and beyond. We are perfectionists, and spent a lot of time making sure every single detail of the building was just right, so to see this type of response is tremendously gratifying.”

Clarus Glen Ridge offers residents walking distance access to NJ TRANSIT’s Bay Street train station and the numerous shops, restaurants and cultural attractions of vibrant downtown Montclair. At the same time, it is situated on a quiet street in suburban Glen Ridge, known for its small town feel, elegant gas lamps, and charming historic district. The community’s expansive amenity spaces for recreation, relaxation, fitness and more are punctuated by hospitality-inspired finishes.

Clarus Glen Ridge is the second community to carry the prestigious Clarus brand name. Its predecessor, Clarus Maplewood, is a multiple award-winning community that captured the 2018 “Community of the Year” honors for mixed-use communities from the Metropolitan Builders & Contractors Association, the 2019 Good Neighbor Award from the New Jersey Business & Industry Association, and is the first community in New Jersey to earn the prestigious WELL Certification – Gold Level by the International WELL Building Institute, which recognizes buildings designed to enhance the health and wellness of its occupants. Clarus Glen Ridge has followed in those award-winning footsteps by recently being named one of the “Best of 2021” development projects by the Mid Atlantic Real Estate Journal.

JMF Properties is poised to introduce two more rental communities in the coming year. A third Clarus community, Clarus Berkeley Heights, is expected to launch leasing in 2023, near the Berkeley Heights train station and the vibrant shopping and dining of Springfield Avenue. Another premium community, The American, is expected to launch leasing in the fall of 2022 at 1000 American Road in Morris Plains, with direct access to the Morris Plains train station.
